vs.	)	Case No. 3:20-cr-187-1
Leona Yoki Washington,	)
Defendant.	)

In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), I conclude that the following facts require the detention of the defendant.

PART I – FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS

☐ Alternative A – The Court finds:

- ☐ (1) (a) There is probable cause to believe that defendant has committed an offense listed in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)(3), or
- ☐ (b) Defendant is charged with an offense listed in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and has been convicted of an offense described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)(2); and
- ☐ (2) (a) Defendant has not presented sufficient evidence to rebut the presumption above, and detention is ordered on that basis, or
- ☐ (b) Defendant has presented evidence sufficient to rebut the presumption, but after considering the presumption and the other factors discussed below, detention is warranted.

☐ Alternative B – The Court finds one or more of the following:

- ☐ (1) The Government has proved by preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure defendant's appearance.
- ☐ (2) The Government has proved by clear and convincing evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably ensure the safety of other persons or the community.
- ☐ (3) The Government has proved by a preponderance of the evidence that there is a serious risk that defendant will obstruct or attempt to obstruct justice, or threaten, injure, or intimidate, or attempt to threaten, injure, or intimidate, a prospective witness or juror.

☒ Alternative C – The Court finds one of the following:

- ☒ (1) Defendant does not contest detention at this time.
- ☐ (2) Defendant is not eligible for release at this time.
- ☐ (3) Defendant shall remain in custody until a residential reentry placement is available.

PART II – WRITTEN STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

Leona Yoki Washington was arrested in the Western District of Washington, and made an appearance there. It is not clear from the docket whether the magistrate judge in that district ordered her detained pending trial, or ordered her detained pending an appearance in this district. During the December 1, 2020 arraignment, the United States moved for her detention pending trial. The court explained Washington's right to a detention hearing if the court in the district of arrest addressed only detention pending appearance in this district. Washington confirmed her understanding of that right. To the extent she retains a right to a detention hearing in this district, Washington requested that the hearing be continued indefinitely. The court therefore finds, at this time, there is no condition or combination of conditions that would reasonably assure her appearance at future proceedings.

PART III – DIRECTIONS REGARDING DETENTION

Defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. Defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with court proceedings.
